Absolutely spotlessly presented and as good if not better than new!

This contemporary designed and torrens tile (yes no strata here) duplex is designed for extremely low maintenance and easy care living.

Ducted gas central heating and two split system air conditionings will keep you at what ever temperature you desire. Seperate loungeroom and terrific 7.5 x 4m (approx) QLD style room with electric shutters mean that the grandchildren will have their own stretch out room when they come to stay!

Don't worry about a lawn mower here. A quick sweep front and back and your away.

One thing is for certain - this will not last long - HURRY !!
