Here is the ideal property if you are wanting to get into the market and leave renting behind or for those investors wanting to build on their portfolio. Situated in a quiet street the property offers two large bedrooms and a good sized living area

The bathroom has been fully renovated. There is a split system for all year comfort. There is plenty of room in the backyard for the swing set and trampoline and a lock up garage.

Currently rented for $220 per week this is definitely one to inspect
