Now is the time to act and the vendor says sell. This home has been reduced and offers great value at this price. Set in a quiet area with parkland and walking areas at your back door the home offers two separate living areas, a fully renovated kitchen and dining area. The large garage is suitable for the hobbyist or for storage and even the large garden shed has power to it. The outdoor area will see you enjoying the summer months entertaining family and friends. It's been drastically reduced so time for you to inspect.
