This centrally located cottage is a real cutie and wow look at the price. The home has had a makeover with renovated kitchen and bathroom and fresh paint throughout. There are polished floorboards through the living areas and gas heating. The bedrooms are an excellent size with a smaller third bedroom. The hobbyist will love that there is plenty of room for a workshop adjoining the single garage. Set on a well fenced yard backing onto a park and close to schools, shops and easy access to the CBD this is one to put on the must see list. Don't delay in making your appointment to inspect today.
